

WORKSHOP 1 (23rd Sept, Birmingham)
Indoor Environment and Chronic Disorders of the Cardiopulmonary System
8.30-9.00 Registration
Part 1: Introduction and Background
9.00-9.05 Jon Ayres	Introduction on Aims of the Project (emphasizing importance of lifelong prospective, role of indoor exposures on prevention and/or mitigation, discussing both “negative” and “positive” exposures)
9.05-9.25 George Morris	Introduction to the DPSEEA model
Part 2: Introduction on cardiopulmonary system and the indoor environment
9.25-09.30 Jon Ayres	Overview of chronic disorders affecting the respiratory system, with a focus on the possible interaction on indoor environment and potential for prevention/mitigation.
9.30-9.45	Patient with COPD on his/her experience of the condition
10.20-10.30	Overview of chronic disorders affecting the cardiovascular system, with a focus on the possible interaction on indoor environment and potential for prevention/mitigation.
10.30-10.40	CVD patient on his/her experience of the condition
10.40-11.15	Coffee break and voting
Part 3: DPSEEA mapping
11.15-12.15	Workshop on DPSEEA mapping for respiratory system and the indoor environment
12.15-13.30	Lunch
13.30-14.30	Workshop on DPSEEA mapping for cardiovascular system and the indoor environment
14.30-15.00	Coffee break
Part 4: Summary and the Next Steps
15.00-16.00	Summary, conclusions, next steps